Thieves snatch famous diamond in daylight robbery
By Jason Wilson Crime reporter

The Champagne Diamond, one of the world's most famous jewels, has been stolen from the London home of American movie stars Jasper Stone and his wife Serena Stone. Stone described the morning's theft as a bold and daring daylight robbery.

Serena was to have worn the diamond at tomorrow's Royal International Film Awards ceremony at the Dorchester Hotel - where she is expected to win this year's Best Film Actress award.

The giant gem, which is set in a spectacular golden necklace, got its name because of its pale champagne colour. It has been much sought after by the rich and famous since it was discovered in South Africa in 1905.

Jasper Stone bought it for his wife when they got married five years ago after it was put up for auction by the family of the legendary Hollywood leading lady, Gloria Brooklyn, who died in 2002.

Mr Stone has described the theft as nothing more than a daylight robbery. He said that, despite great security, thieves had managed to get inside their home and steal the diamond necklace in broad daylight.

Although some staff were in the house, the couple were not at home - they were being interviewed by the BBC for a previous programme about the Awards ceremony.

Serena Stone's Auntie London Stone, where it lives, struck earlier today.

"I couldn't believe it when I heard that the diamond had been stolen," exclaimed Mr Stone.

"Serena is devastated. She doesn't normally bring her jewellery on our travels - particularly the precious Champagne Diamond necklace. Most of the time it is kept in our bank vaults in Hollywood. But because the Awards ceremony is such a prestigious event, and Serena had been nominated for an award, she wanted to wear it."

He added: "It must have been an inside job - I don't see how the thieves could possibly have got through our very tight security without help."

Chief Superintendent Andy Campbell, who is leading the investigation, explained that the diamond had been kept under strict security in a hidden safe in the couple's bedroom. Only a few of the staff knew that the safe existed. Fewer still knew that the necklace was in Britain.

"We are certainly following up the line that the thieves had inside help. We are interviewing all staff and checking all deliveries or calls to the house yesterday," said Chief Superintendent Campbell.

He added: "We are doing everything we can to try to recover the diamond. Luckily, its size, setting, champagne colour and exquisite cut mean it will be almost impossible for the thieves to sell it on."

It must have been an inside job - I don't see how the thieves could possibly have got through our very tight security without help.

Life Dance had little to do with why the devadasi system was abhorrent to those who wanted to abolish it; it was because of its cruel abuse of girls India Daily The Hindu has withdrawn its report on the alleged sexual abuse of a woman victim of the stampede at the Elphinstone Road train station. On Wednesday, Venugopal had denounced to the Supreme Court that documents related to the Rafale agreement of the Ministry of Defense had been stolen and had also threatened to invoke the Official Secrets Act and take "criminal action" against media publications. Showing 1 à 20 of 80 results The Hindu à Total Results à 80 India If the government wants to be ashamed, it can charge the Hindu with simple theft but not espionage. India The report on the Rafale deal over The Hindu, armed with which Congress Chief Rahul Gandhi had organised a press conference in which he beat Prime Minister Narendra Modi, appears to have produced only partial internal communication between the Office of the Prime Minister (PMO) and the Ministry of Defense. Politics The Rafale agreement reached by Narendra Modi's government was not "in better condition than the offer made by Dassault Aviation to the UPA government for 126 Rafale planes", reported The Hindu. India The GAC report on Rafale can have answered the two important questions raised by The Hindu report, which cited an eight-page dissatisfied note by three members of the Indian Negotiating Team (INT) who had concluded that the NDA was not better off than the UPA agreement and that there was no faster delivery schedule than the agreement negotiated under the UPA regime.
